

I'm over monopolized music. Simply pumping money into a song and controlling all the radio stations to brainwash the masses IS NOT entertainment. There is so much music out there that will never be heard because of controversial messages.

Free speech falls under music, too.

-Cal