

I believe it is time to do something that will better the lives of many, rather than just fatten the wallets of the few. Please allow our public airwaves to be used to improve the internet and to make it available to more people.