

It is vital that americans retain their 1st amendnet right to free speech regardless of the medium of the transmission. Therefore, the FCC must ensure that the upcoming auction sets aside at least 30 MHz of spectrum for open and non-discriminatory Internet access. This will guarantee that new entrants have the opportunity to enter the market in competition with incumbent providers.