

Please maintain open access to the Internet and use this radio spectrum to give people the ability to connect. There are many places in Maine that have been told they will never receive broadband access- this will grant them that opportunity.