

I recently have been getting calls from Capital One and I requested that they quit calling my cell phone because I had to pay for it. I was informed by a supervisor that said she would not stop calling my cell phone.