

The air waves are a public resource, they should be used for the public good. The biggest need that I see at the current time is the lack of a good broad band alternative to the phone companies and cable companies. Please consider allocating the 700 band to that purpose. This would be especially valuable for those of us who have no other options.

Many thanks for listening