

How dare you discriminate based upon address!!! Those most disenfranchised are also often rural citizens who need phone service more than those living in urban areas.