

The Oregon Rural Health Coalition advocates for all rural providers of health care in the rural parts of the state. From Emergency Medical Providers to hospitals and physicians communications is vital in Oregon's vast remote areas. Please help improve the lives of rural Oregonians by protecting and expanding the Universal Services Fund for wireless providers.