Net Neutrality is essential to any democracy.

I can't get my news from traditional sources anymore. They're too censored and over sensationalized. In fact, their news is completely irrelevant. I rely greatly on the Internet to keep myself updated on a variety of issues, get various opinions and viewpoints from all kinds of people, and to help me put information into context.

The FCC must ensure that broadband providers do not block, interfere with or discriminate against any lawful Internet traffic based on its ownership, source or destination. Otherwise, the Internet will turn into the mainstream media that I ran away from. This isn't China!

Please don't let big phone and cable companies take over the Internet!
