

Please protect and expand the Universal Service Fund for wireless providers. Oregon's economy has been improving, but that improvement has not reached the more rural parts of the state. Wireless service is a critical component of business development. Proviison of competitive wireless services is critical to prevent rural Oregon from slipping further into a technological and economic backwater. Don't shortchange rural Oregon or other rural areas of this country.