

Why would you want to cancel the Universal Service Fund it is a valuable resource for customers of companies such as US Cellular. For example, this fund provides for the communication needs of all Americans, especially those who live in areas that may not otherwise be served by the wireless industry.