

Culture and Education

I'm an educator and a musician. A free and unfettered internet is essential for my teaching and for the cultural contributions I am attempting to make as a composer and performer. Please keep the power in the hands of the people, it is what's right.