

I would like to start by saying that there are many, many tax paying citizens that live in rural areas that deserve the conveniences of mobile communication just as much as those who live in metro areas. I feel that I am being discriminated against because I choose to live in a less populated and less stressful environment. This is a matter that needs to be taken seriously and to give equal rights to all Americans, and not based on where we live.