

This is unacceptable. Are the rural areas not as important? This is just another example of big government sticking it to the little man. Please do not shut off rural America from the rest of the world by capping the Universal Service Fund.