

The area of my coverage is ruff. As a customer we need more towers put up to help with the coverage. Cell service should be a safe service but there is places where no service is available so does that make life unavailable I don't thing so. We should put more towers up to help and that is way we need the fund.