

I know freedom ain't free...but can't we talk?

What I want to see happen is the allowance of the one place where America is still the country it's supposed to be. I want to see the internet stay accessible to everyone no matter race, creed, religion, gender, or paycheck. The internet embodies voice to the speechless. I'm not made of millions. I'm not an important voice to the people who run the country. I'm just someone who will NOT stand idly by why my only real freedoms are being stripped from me. I'll do as the founders of this country did and protect my rights with mind, body, and spirit as long as my heart beats. Allow the internet to stay with the people or find uprising as the harvest for what you have sewn!

Firestorm (In Part) by Earth Crisis:

"Street by street. Block by block. Taking it all back.

The youth's immersed in poison, turn the tide counterattack.

Violence against violence, let the roundups begin.

A firestorm to purify the bane that society drowns in.

No mercy, no exceptions, a declaration of total war.

The innocents' defense is the reason it's waged for."

Thank you...
