

It will be a detriment to the people who live in rural areas to place a cap on etc funds for the cellular carriers-saftely and security being the significant areas of concern