

We have had enough of big business and lobbyists.

We have had enough of big business and lobbyists dictating public policy. The administration in Washington has virtually abandoned everyday Americans. We demand that the internet be neutral. Once big business/greedy corporate America and the interfering lobbyists dictate, censor and price out of the market ordinary Americans we will have no voice to stop the corruption and propaganda that emanates from the big conglomerates. Where is Teddy Roosevelt when we need him? Ron and Carol Mrozinski