

I believe along with many others, that the combination of the two would not only be great for consumers, but, also create more competition among other mediums. I believe the ala carte option with the combined company would save consumers (myself included) and give us more options for what we want to hear. I encourage the FCC to rule positively and in favor of this combination of Satellite companies.

Thank you,
Michael Creah