

I Believe the merger is good for consumers,not only will it give more choices to consumers but also better prices.As far as nab ,they are just afraid of the competition.