

Keep net neutrality alive. I personally do not want to see big companies throttle my internet connection if I'm on a rival's website. I want to be able to browsing the internet like it was meant to be, anyway that I please. Also without net neutrality, the big companies would be taking away American citizens' right of the 1st Amendment. Keep net neutrality around and defend our freedom of speech!!!