

America stands for freedom right? war on terror, fight for freedom? How can you call america free when this is even on the table? Sounds like someone isnt fighting for freedom to me.

I have alot to say and alot of anger about this to vent, but im not going to here. All i wanted to say is america is becoming a totalitarian serice to the major corporations and i would sooner die than raise my children in a world where they are not free.