

Net Neutrality

The internet should not be controlled or censored by any person or company. Do not allow the telcos to control it. They may have helped build the internet, but we the consumers have paid for it.