

Please take the lives of rural people into consideration. My family relies solely on our cellular phones. If we had an emergency and had no reception the results could be fatal.