Dear FCC:

I am a music lover, all genres. I live in a rural area with no FM stations to speak of, and no possible reception from distant stations because of mountains. I would shrivel up and die if it were not for satellite radio availability.

You can't imagine the cultural depravation that exists for those of us who depend on satelliate radio. Merging these two entities means a richer, more complete life for me, and I am totally all for ithe merger.

Leo Dolant

Sincerely,

Leo Dolan
