

Dear FCC, I am currently a Sirius Satellite Radio subscriber and support the Sirius XM merger. There are personalities, talent and sports programming on XM which are unavailable to me as a Sirius subscriber. In addition, the new vehicle I have purchased only had the option of XM rather than Sirius. Not approving this merger would cause additional hardship financially. There currently are several technologies, such as MP3 players, HD radio which compete with Satellite radio. I do not believe this merger would be detrimental or cause hardship to the consumer, only benefit. APPROVE THE MERGER
