Dear FCC:

I agree whole heartedly that these companies should be allowed to merge. They compete with regular radio, which by the way has become a monopoly of it's own with one company owning 4-8 stations in a market.

They compete with iPod/mp3 players in cars.

One has to ask, why does the NAB care so much, because they are a competitor. They are proving the mergers case that it will not be a monopoly.

Sincerely,

Rob Gutierrez
