

Dear members at the FCC,

I live in a rural area. I depend on cellular service in my work, as well as for safety and security measures. Please do not discriminate against rural areas just because our census is small. Rural areas are growing at a phenomenal rate. Thank you, *judy norton