Dear FCC:

As an original XM subscriber, I beg you to block the merger between these two companies. They can't manage themselves in direct competition against each other, so they want to eliminate the competition. They overpay for talent to block them from signing with the other satellite provider. i.e. One half of a Billion Dollars for Howard Stern. Now they want a monopoly on the greatest new medium in entertainment. Don't reward their greed and stupidity! As consumers will regret it.

Alex Onorato

Sincerely,

Alex Onorato
