Dear FCC:

I look forward to the Sirius/XM merger being approved for the following reasons.

1. More affordable prices in respects to subscription and content/media players in general. Including online or internet subscriptions.
2. Greater selection and improvement of content. For example, NFL, NBA, MLB, NHL, Howard Stern, Opie & Anthony, Snoop Dogg, Eminem, Etc. Including online selection.
3. Greater selection of content players and improved functionality. I assume enhanced device capabilities in the mid-term outlook. Smaller, sleeker, cooler devices that have better appeal and functionality than the iPod, iriver clix, Zune, etc.
4. Improved functionality, ease of use, and appeal of media player software such that it is similar or better than Musicmatch, iTunes, Windows Media Player 11, etc.
5. Improved all-around support and efficiencies. Including reception, coverage, and quality of sound.

Sincerely,

Art
