

I am opposed to this merger. Letting the only two existing satellite radio providers to merge will mean they can raise their prices without having to worry about a competitor. Please don't take competition out of satellite radio.