

It's hypocritical that the NAB will publicly post in their risk factors that they compete with satellite radio yet head the opposition to oppose the merger. It appears to be more of a drive to eliminate the competition.