

Since we do not hear any word to build up the vocabulary and to improve our mean of communication, we need all closed captions in all channels as well as let them have open public to everybody to see the captions instead of hearing, not only for our Deafness, foreign people who need to improve English in writing and reading.