

Bend Over America, Here It Comes Again.

Once again, the regulatory agencies of our government have decided that the needs of corporations are far more important than the wishes of its citizens. I am appalled that the FCC would wish to dismantle Net Neutrality to prove YET ANOTHER profit vector for already bloated and greedy businesses, although I am far from surprised. Our history, sadly, is rife with situations in which the needs of the Few rolled roughshod over the those of the Many.

"Experience demands that man is the only animal which devours his own kind, for I can apply no milder term to the general prey of the rich on the poor."

Thomas Jefferson (1743-1826) Third president of the United States.
