

Don't take away my music freedom on the net

Net Neutrality is essential to free speech, equal opportunity and economic innovation in America. With that been said i need the freedom of the net to do business. Radio already will not play our music so please don't let this happen to the internet. Don't kill independent artists.

Ralph Johnson