

Wow! FCC = Corporate Whores!

Golly ... Bush Administration appointees bending over for telecom lobbyists? What's new???

God forbid you people should do your job and represent the interests of average citizens. But then, when you're out of government you'll be going to work for these vampires anyway, so why wait to stuff your schnozzes up their keysters? Get an early start and make the boss happy!

Vile, spineless, lying, thieving bastards.
