

Small business owner will suffer

We operate a small family-owned and run internet business. A level playing field on the internet is critical for the survival of our business as we can't afford to pay for expensive online advertising or hosting and rely on ready access to our site from internet searches and word of mouth. Please keep the internet as it was originally intended - readily accessible to all. Thank you.