

This country was founded on the principles of freedom, equality and choice. Our government no longer seems to represent the will of the people, but instead only respects the Dollar and the voices of the people who have lots of them. Urge your local and state political officials to stand up for your rights, your freedoms and your ability to choose for yourself.