

Deaf people in the United States need the video relay service interpreters and please don't reduce the services available to serve the deaf community. We prefer to use the VRS and HOVRS than the TDD or TTY (Telecommunication device with keyboard visual display for deaf people). Thanks