

Freedom of Speech, Freedom from Censure

The Constitution and Bill of Rights guarantee my right to freedom of speech. I think the Supreme Court would agree that includes the Internet.

The Internet was created to share information and it should stay that way. It is essential to our society to have the means to information. That is why we have public libraries. We have to stay competitive in the world and that won't happen with a censored Internet.