

Public radio stations serve the community. We do it because it's the right thing to do, not just because it is required. Neither XM nor Sirius provide community service to their listeners. If our radio station group were to request permission to purchase ALL the radio stations in our community, it would be DECLINED! That would be considered a MONOPOLY!