

I have been a victim of identity theft twice in my adult life. I am currently experiencing phone calls from a debt collector for a debt that is not mine, despite the fraud alerts I have put on my credit reports. These calls are to my cell phone, and I don't have very many daytime minutes. I certainly do not want to use the few daytime minutes I have for debt collectors. The practice of debt collectors calling cell phones should absolutely not be allowed!