

I am against the merger of XM and Sirius. I have subscriptions to both and believe programming will suffer greatly. I am also against any monopoly and the merger will create one. I do not listen to broadcast radio at all and very little recorded media and do not consider them competition to satellite. There is no way I can get the content of XM's Bluesville any where else. Thank you,
David Dunbar