

Dear FCC,I want the pricately issued MMSI numbers, including the one issued to me on your behalf by BoatUS, to be fully portable and suitable when applying for an FCC License. There is no excuse for forcing us to re-program our radios and probably spend money if we need an International license when traveling in International waters. These numbers should be as portable as private cell phone numbers.

Sincerely,
Joseph Ryan