

Having filed for and recieved an MMSI number through the Boat US registry it will require me to send the VHF radio back to the manufacture for reprograming. I feel the the MMSI number should be portable. The numbers for cell phone users are portable and the VHF numbers should be given the same consideration.