Dear FCC:

I am writing to urge the FCC and Congress to approve the merger between XM and Sirius. As a subscriber to both services a merger would benefit me by having to pay half as much for the same content. In terms of competition, XM and Sirius compete not just with each other but with thousands of terrestrial radio stations, iPods, internet radio, and cable and satellite tv music. Don't give in to terrestrial radio and its huge lobbying effort. Approve the merger already.

Sincerely,

Andrew Klein
