

Regarding RM-11306. I feel this change is not needed. The amateur radio bands are already set up with voluntary band plans that provide space for everyone no matter what mode of transmission they are using.