

I would hope the FCC Chairman would listen to congress and the public. There is much concern over big media consolidation. A democracy operates on freedom of speech and as regulatory agency please listen to the people and congress.