

After repeatedly advising callers of no interest in their product or services and requesting to be removed from their calling list, as well as notifying them of our status on the "Do Not Call" National Registry, multiple company sales representatives continue to call and harass.

The most recent exchanges today included threatening comments and profanity when the caller and company was again rejected. "Fuck You Bitch" is not at all professional and is even more disheartening to receive such calls in our home where there is a physically disabled and mentally challenged elder adult being attacked in a predatory and abusive way.

A call back to another company representative gave the following company information:

Marketing Solutions
175789 Rolling Hills Drive Lane
Casa Grande, Arizona 85222

I hope that you will be able to stop this kind of harassment as it is very upsetting and needs to be prosecuted. There's certainly a better way to do "marketing" business and it doesn't include intimidation, attacks, or profanity.

Please contact me should you require additional information.

Thank you,
Jackie R. Potts, Jr.
