

Why is the commissioner rushing elimination of this rule? It makes him look as if he is in big businesses pocket. Why isn't he listening to the American people? He works for us and needs to sell us on the rule change if he truly believes it will not hurt America by reducing consolidating information sources.